

Main Street Coffee House

Musician & Performing Arts Agreement

In order to provide a quality family friendly environment Main Street Coffee House will require that all performances adhere to the following set of standards

- No foul language of any kind
- No lewd behavior
- No political, religious, or racial slander
- All merchandise offered or sold must be family friendly

Main Street Coffee House reserves the right to halt any performance that we find inappropriate or inconsistent with a family friendly environment.

Main Street Coffee House asks that all performances be kept at a reasonable volume, and reserve the right to ask the performer(s) to lower the volume. We would like to maintain an environment where people can still carry on a conversation and relax. We ask that performers to take this into consideration when setting levels and throughout their performance.

Main Street Coffee House disallows the collection of cover charges or admission fees; however we encourage performances to be appreciated through tips.

We will be offering free drinks and dessert for musicians on the day of their performance.

We will also place a tip jar next to the register for performing artist to ensure customers are aware of its existence. (MSCH is currently discussing a cash guarantee for the tip jar)

I have read and understood Main Street Coffee House's musician & performing arts agreement
